The ART-JOURNAL has attained full age: Twenty-one volumes have been issued since the year 1839; and it continues to be, as it has been during nearly the whole of that long period, the only publication in Europe by which the Arts are adequately represented.

To the Artist, the Amateur, and the Connoisseur, the ART-JOURNAL supplies information upon all topics in which they are interested; while to the general public it addresses itself by the beauty and variety of its illustrations, and by articles at once instructive and interesting.

The Past may be accepted as a guarantee for the Future. Many novelties and improvements are introduced into its pages during the present year. The services of the best writers on Art are retained; the aid of the most prominent and accomplished artists secured; and every possible advantage that can be derived from experience is brought to bear upon the Journal, to secure its power by sustaining its popularity.

Art, which some twenty years ago was, in Great Britain, the resource of the few, has now become the enjoyment of the many. Every public institution has learned that to circulate a knowledge of Art is a leading and paramount duty; its refining influence has been largely acknowledged; and there is, consequently, a very general desire to derive enjoyment and instruction from Art among all classes and orders of the community.

This high purpose is achieved by the ART-JOURNAL. It is, therefore, reasonable to expect for it a greatly increased circulation—a circulation commensurate with the advanced and advancing Art-love manifest in all parts of the world.

We have the satisfaction to inform our many friends and subscribers in the United States of America, that with this Part we commence a series of papers entitled, "THE HUDSON, FROM THE WILDERNESS TO THE SEA." These papers will be largely illustrated by engravings on wood, from sketches and drawings by the author, BENSON J. LOSSING, Esq., whose reputation is among the highest in the United States, and has been established in England by his admirable volumes, "The Battle Fields of America," &c. &c.

This "Book of the Hudson" has been prepared especially for publication in the ART-JOURNAL; with this view Mr. Lossing visited the gigantic river at its source, and is now tracing its course downward to the sea.

With the Part for January is also commenced "THE COMPANION GUIDE, BY RAILWAY, IN SOUTH WALES," by Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hall, illustrated by Messrs. J. D. Harding, Birket Foster, Hulme, May, &c.

THE TURNER BEQUEST.—Ere long, the subscribers to the ART-JOURNAL will obtain engravings from pictures by the great master in the gallery he has founded.

Subscribers are aware that a New Series was begun with the year 1855; when we obtained the honour, graciously accorded, of issuing Engravings from the Royal Pictures; of the new series, therefore, five volumes are now completed: while the series containing the Vernon Gallery—begun in 1849 and ended in 1854—consists of six volumes. Either series may be obtained separately, and may be considered complete, there being no necessity for obtaining the earlier volumes; indeed, these earlier volumes are not to be procured easily, the entire twenty-one volumes being worth "in the market" much beyond their original cost.

Covers for the Volumes of the ART-JOURNAL can be had of any Bookseller at Three Shillings each.

We reply to every letter, requiring an answer, that may be sent to us with the writer's name and address; but we pay no attention to anonymous communications.

The Office of the Editor of the ART-JOURNAL is 4, Lancaster Place, Waterloo Bridge, Strand, where all Editorial communications are to be addressed. Letters, &c., for the Publishers, should be forwarded, as usual, to 25, Paternoster Row.

All Orders for Advertisements should be sent to J. S. VIRTUE, 294, City Road; 26, Ivy Lane, City; or to 4, Lancaster Place, Waterloo Bridge, Strand.

Post Office Orders should be made payable to J. S. VIRTUE, 294, City Road.

The Proprietors of this Work reserve the right of Translating and Publishing it on the Continent of Europe.
